

Associate of Arts - Digital Design Concentration

About this Degree

The Associate of Arts in Digital Design is an undergraduate academic degree earned by students who complete the General Education block requirement (37 credits) and 24 credits of coursework in Digital Design.

The program of study is designed to be completed in two years. It aims to give students the basic technical and academic knowledge and transferable skills they need to pursue employment or further study in digital design.

The Associate of Arts in Digital Design degree completion is beneficial to students who are pursuing a career field requiring an AA degree or desiring to work toward a four-year bachelor's degree later.
